IMPORTANT NOTICE

RIGHTS OF MINORS IN JUVENILE DELINQUENCY PROCEEDINGS

Under the Illinois Juvenile Court Act, the minor has the following rights: to be present at all hearings, to be heard, to present evidence material to the proceedings, to cross examine witnesses, to examine pertinent court files and records (subject to court order) and the right to be represented by an attorney.

The minor is required to appear at all court hearings or a bench warrant may issue for the minor's failure to appear. Remember to bring all documents you have been served with to all court hearings.

The minor must be represented by an attorney. Please do one of the following immediately:

1. Hire an attorney to represent the minor,

Or

2. If you are unable to afford an attorney, a Public Defender will be appointed to represent the minor at the first court hearing.
